- B. The butter and cheese procured shall be shipped on orders issued to the General Manager, DPMA by the Shipping and Storage Branch, Production and Marketing Administration.
- C. DPMA shall be relieved of future responsibility for shipment, storage, or handling of butter and cheese when carrier has executed bills of lading which constitute delivery to the custody of the Shipping and Storage Branch.

II Position Inventory

- A. DPMA shall furnish to the Dairy Branch, Production and Marketing Administration in Washington the original and five copies of a weekly detailed position inventory; one copy of which will be sent to the Shipping and Storage Branch in Washington for the attention of the Chief, Cold Allocations Section, Storage Division. In addition, DPMA will furnish one copy of this report to the Chief, Shipping and Storage Office in Chicago.
- B. While the position inventory report will be the basis on which requests for shipment against specific programs will be accepted by the Shipping and Storage Branch, the Chicago Shipping and Storage Office of the Branch shall on request to DPMA be furnished with a detail statement of availability, prior to the issuance of shipping instructions, which will include the following:
 - 1. Name of Warehouse
 - 2. Location
 - 3. Quantity (net pounds and cars)
 - 4. Type Package
 - 5. Grade
 - 6. Whether stored in transit and, if so, actual origin and inbound route to storage.

III Making of Shipments

When the request to ship against a specific program has been accepted, the Storage Division will furnish the Chicago Shipping and Storage Office complete information pertinent to the shipment, from which point, the following action will be taken:

A. Preparation of Vendor Ticket, Form FDA-601

The Shipping and Storage Office in Chicago will prepare a vendor ticket (Form FDA-601) for each shipment being made by DPMA. The Vendor Ticket will be prepared, duplicated, and distributed in accordance with Shipping and Storage Branch Memorandum No. 39.9.

B. Preparation of the Notice to Deliver, Form FDA-194 or CCC-107

1. The Notice to Deliver (Forms FDA-194 or CCC-107) will be prepared by the Chicago Shipping and Storage Office for DPMA shipments. DPMA will be shown as the name of the shipper on the "Notices to Deliver".
2. Distribution of Notice to Deliver copies will be in accordance with the provisions of the Shipping and Storage Branch Memorandum No. 79.2. The original and second copies will be forwarded directly to the General Manager of DPMA in Chicago. These copies of the Notice to Deliver shall be retained by DPMA as evidence of the shipment being authorized.

C. Bills of Lading

1. Government Bills of Lading will be prepared by DPMA in Chicago. The Traffic Manager of DPMA is authorized to sign Government Bills of Lading as the "Issuing Officer".
2. Copies of Government Bills of Lading will be distributed in accordance with Shipping and Storage Branch Memorandum No. 79.1 Revision 1.

D. Loading Manifests

1. DPMA (or the warehouse upon request of DPMA) will prepare loading Manifests, (Form FDA-473 or CCC-149) including thereon the information provided for and the commodity code symbol.
2. Copies of the Loading Manifests will be distributed by DPMA as directed in Document Distribution Instruction to Vendors, Form FDA-345.

E. Reports of Shipment

1. Immediately upon delivery to the carrier, the warehouse making the shipment for DPMA will prepare a wire report to the General Manager of DPMA furnishing the information described below, except those items marked with an asterisk (*). At the same time, a duplicate wire will be sent to the Shipping and Storage Office of destination by the warehouseman.
